Andrea Bragg is in the business of love. Forsythe Jewelers, located in The Shops at Sea Pines Center, has shared in anniversaries, engagements and those, "just-because-moments," of locals and visitors alike since 1981. As owner, Andrea is passionate about bringing "big city" style to the Lowcountry. "Having called Hilton Head home for over 20 years, I understand how special this place is. I also understand the strong desire to shop current fashion trends in a place that is uniquely "local." Owning a business where that happens daily makes for a very rewarding career and one that I am thankful for each day."
